Gen. Williams Has Arrived in Hopkinsville With His Soldiers.

Cadiz, Ky., May 4.—After an examining trial Saturday in the County Court, Judge Bingham held the twelve men accused of banding together to drive negroes away from Center Furnace, under bond of $500 each to answer to the grand jury, which meets here the third Monday in May. The accused men are James Ackley, James Haston, Ebb Woods, Willie Sherbert, Rouse Forsythe, Henry Forsythe, Mode Ethridge, James Alldridge, John Alldridge, Ben Wood, James Oakley and Wick Meredith. All gave bond and were released.

Walter Goodwin, who swore out the warrants, was the principal witness for the prosecution. He said that about five weeks ago five of the defendants induced him to meet with them in a field at night when they discussed the whipping of Zeb Miller, a negro. Program Is a Most Interesting and Entertaining One.

Under the auspices of the state board of agriculture an institute will be held by the Pembroke Farmers' Club, at Pembroke today and tomorrow. A large attendance is expected from Christian and adjoining counties and a most interesting program has been prepared. Among those who are expected to take part are Congressman A. O. Stanley, Mr. Joseph E. Wing, of Mechanicsburg, Ohio, who is probably one of the best known authorities on agriculture matters in this country. Mr. C. D. Lyon, of Georgetown, O., Mr. M. C. Rankin, commissioner of Kentucky, and Mr. A. D. Shamel of the United States Agricultural Department will be present.

Mr. Chas. E. Barker is President of the Farmers' Club having the affair under its general management and extends a cordial invitation to everybody to attend.

SHOOTING SCRAPE

Dan McKnight Is Shot in the Hip and Wounded.

Cleveland Hutchinson and Dan McKnight, two colored boys, had a fight near the corner of Main and Ninth streets Saturday afternoon about four o'clock and two shots were fired. One of the shots took effect in McKnight's hip, making a painful wound. While still running after Hutchinson, he was arrested by Private Lindley, of Co. D., who was near by, and turned over to the police; he attempted to throw away a pistol, and one theory is that he may have been shot by his own pistol in the scuffle. Hutchinson was arrested soon afterwards by officer Shanklin. Another negro who seemed to be a participant in the affair was caught by two citizens while running from the scene and taken to police headquarters for investigation.

McKnight's wound was dressed by City Physician Harned and he was allowed to go to the home of his father, four miles from town, for the present.
